C. The GAL shall keep an accurate record of the costs associated with providing representation to children. At the end of each quarter, the GAL’s title IV-E eligible costs shall be reported to the Department. The GAL shall retain records that document the costs claimed and these records shall be made available to the Department or federal authorities upon request. E. The Department shall provide training and technical assistance to the GAL to ensure proper costs are included in the Department’s cost allocation.

7. Joint Responsibilities.

A. The GAL and the Department will cooperate in identifying which GAL expenditures are allowable title IV-E costs.

B. The GAL will be responsible for repayment of any title IV-E funds received by the GAL that are determined to be disallowed costs as a direct result of a federal or state audit of GAL financial records and/or the result of the federal IV-E eligibility reviews. Disallowed costs may include expenses that were not directly attributable to the cost of attorneys for children in abuse/neglect, juvenile service, and TPR proceedings, or expenses that were not supported by appropriate documents or records. Disallowed costs must be repaid to the Department within thirty (30) days of written request by the Department.

C. The Department shall be entitled to recover all payments erroneously or improperly made to the GAL. The full amount of any erroneous or improper payment shall be refunded to the Department within thirty (30) days of written request by the Department.

D. If the GAL fails to repay the Department within thirty (30) days, the amount owed to the Department may be automatically deducted from any future payments to the GAL.
